7-MONTHS SCHOOL PROBLEM TO MEET

Eastern County Superintendents
Discuss It Chiefly At Convocation Here

The annual convocation of County School Superintendents of the Eastern Normal district began its work Wednesday night in the chapel of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School. Organization was effected by the election of Supt. L. E. Meece, of Pulaski, as chairman; Supt. Jordan, of Lawrence county as secretary, and Supt. O. B. Farris, of Boyle, as assistant secretary.

The question of the seven months' term of school was discussed at length by quite a number of the superintendents. State Supt. George Colvin was present and took an active part in the discussion of this improvement of the schools. The consensus of opinion was that while the seven months' term would put a strain on the finances of some of the counties, it was a wise, beneficial and necessary move.

The superintendents are in session on the campus Thursday and the work will continue Friday. Among those who have registered for the convocation are:

James R. Abner, of Garrard; J. C. Adams, Lewis; J. W. Seabolt, Oldham; A. C. Jones, Harlan; G. H. Turnipseed, Mason; M. A. Field, Bracken; Dock Jordan, Lawrence; Mrs. Hattie Penny, Wayne; Maye Neal, Robertson; J. S. Adams, Magoffin; Bruce Rose, Wolfe; A. J. Creech, Owsley; B. F. Edwards, Madison; J. W. Reiley, Campbell; G. Singleton, Lincoln; E. S. Land, Estill; U. G. Johnson, Martin; B. N. Harrison, Grant; Faller, Campbell; Brathwaite; Mrs. Hattie Pope, Henry; George Clark, Letcher; M. B. Hiner, Woodford; G. H. Wells, Pendleton; N. J. Parsons, Franklin; Samuel Walker, Whitley; M. N. Evans, Fleming; D. H. Taylor, Knott; Paris B. Allen, Clark; W. A. Creech, Jackson; D. M. Allen, Clay; Fred Meece, Johnson; J. H. Hatfield, Greenup; Miss Jones, Owen; Mrs. Rose Davis, Gallatin; O. B. Farris, Boyle; Camie Wilson, Bell; J. C. Gordon, Boone; Carrie I. Hay, Trimble; J. C. Mills, Kenton; R. W. Kincaid, Bath; Bernard Whitt, Morgan; L. E. Meece, Pulaski.

Other superintendents will be in attendance before the close of the meeting. Various representatives from the city schools besides visitors from adjoining counties make the present convocation the best attended of any ever held.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Davison—Gibson

A great surprise to their many friends was the marriage of Miss Emma Davison and Mr. Charles H. Gibson, which occurred Wednesday evening at 8:30 at the home of Dr. Homer W. Carpenter on Lancaster avenue. Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Eleanor, Misses Tevis James and Mollie Allman witnessed the ceremony.

Miss Davison is the third daughter of Mrs. A. M. Davison, of Lancaster avenue, and is of most attractive personality and makes friends of everyone she meets. The groom is a splendid young business man, son of Mr. John H. Gibson, a prominent farmer on the Lancaster road.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for Corbin to attend the wedding of the bride's brother, Fred Davison. They will go to Lewisburg, W. Va., and will spend a two weeks' honeymoon at White Sulphur Springs. The happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

MAY LET ROADS MAKE OWN RATES

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 25—At the treasury today officials suggested a possible solution of the nation's transportation problems would be to let the roads make their own rates without government restrictions. High officials said if the transportation problem could be attacked along lines of the armament conference and a holiday of government railroad rate regulation for five years be declared, better service and greatly improved industrial conditions would result.

MAPOTHER SAYS RATES TOO HIGH

Jackson, Tenn., May 25—A distinct improvement in business conditions, an enormous need for and surely approaching reduction in freight rates and necessity for every citizen really interested in himself in the type of public official for whom he casts his vote were the high marks of an address delivered here by White L. Mapother, president of L. & N. His talk at Paris was in the same vein.

"For the past year or more," Mr. Mapother said, "a mere statement of facts among business men sounded like the wall of a convention of pessimists, but now, happily, there is a distinct change for the better that is indicated by many reliable business barometers."

"One is the volume of less than carload shipments and miscellaneous freight. In the 17th week of 1922 the volume of this business was higher than in any corresponding period for the last three years and materially better than the average for like periods from 1919 to 1921—all of which indicates a healthy business revival."

"Freight rates are no doubt, too high. They are atrociously high. Every railroad executive in the country, I believe, harbors such a view. They must come down, but can come down only when the cost of service is reduced. Cost of service, in turn, can be brought down only when wages are deflated not to pre-war figures but to a figure applicable to similar labor in other lines of industrial effort."

"Going further and indulging in a lot of levity, I might say freight rates are outrageously high and so is the price of good liquor. I mean, of course, for medicinal purposes only."

"Strangely enough, abnormal cost of both of these commodities has been brought about thru the enactment of legislation which emanated largely from so-called political expediency, real or imaginary. You are to blame and I am to blame and both of us must be more careful about the kind of men we place in charge of public affairs."

Harrodsburg, Ky., May 25—Four members of the fire department carrying a chemical engine in an automobile, responded to a call from the Lee Vanarsdale home 4 miles out and succeeded in saving the residence and a corn crib.

AMERICAN FACES 20 YEARS IN FRENCH PEN

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, May 25—Charles E. Crane, of Chicago, former American minister to China, was sentenced to 20 years in prison on a charge of inciting a recent disturbance in the French mandate territory in Syria, according to a copyrighted dispatch from Cairo, Egypt, to the Chicago Daily News. The dispatch is based on reports published in Arabic papers received in Cairo. From the account it appears a 15-year-old girl was arrested in connection with the disturbance. This girl was selected by Mr. Crane to receive education benefits in the United States and to check for $1,000 to defray her traveling expenses, prompted the charge that the American government is subsidizing malecontents. Crane is now in the East but in his travels avoids French possessions, so the account says there is little chance of the sentence being carried out.

NORMAL REGENTS MEET FRIDAY

The Board of Regents of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School will meet Friday at 1:30 o'clock at the residence of President T. J. Coates on the campus and will continue in session thru-out Saturday, taking part in the dedicatory exercises of Burnham Hall. A full board is expected.

This is the meeting at which teachers are usually elected. No great changes in the faculty are anticipated. The greatly increased student body will make it necessary for the Regents to consider the problem of enlarging the faculty at certain points. The present Board of Regents consists of Supt. George Colvin, ex-officio chairman; Hon. J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond; Judge J. W. Cammack, of Owensboro; Senator H. M. Brock, of Harlan; and Hon. Chas. F. Weaver, of Ashland. Of the four regents: Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Cammack have been on the board since the beginning of the school. Senator Brock has been on the board for about eight years and Mr. Weaver is serving his first term.

At this meeting of the regents various matters pertaining to the improvement and administration of the school will also be considered.

G. O. P. SENATORS PLAN GAG RULE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 25—A movement said to have been backed by a large number of senators to change the senate rules permitting unlimited debate, was initiated today at a conference of republican leaders. This brought a warning from Senator Underwood, democratic leader, that he would resist to the utmost any effort of the majority to apply "gag" rule for the passage of the tariff bill. Other minority senators intimated a cloture rule would provoke prolonged discussion.

Six Kentucky agents and seven from Virginia entered the Cumberland section along the Big Sandy at Headline Fork.

CONGRESSMAN WANTS TO BE A DARE-DEVIL

(By Associated Press)

Washington, May 25—Willing to take a chance with death to prove himself the only real arial daredevil in Congress, Representative Manuel Herrick, republican, of Oklahoma, today accepted a challenge of Aviator Herbert Foley, to join him in a flight with brakes off. "Life to me is not sweet," Herrick wrote Foley, "and I don't care two whoops in Gehenna if you go up a couple of miles, stand her on her nose and let her hit." Foley promised Herrick he would lose more than his necktie if he accepted this challenge.

MORE REDRIED POOL TOBACCO IS SOLD

Jim Stone Announces Sale of
Million Pounds — Meyer
Praises Pool Plan

(By Associated Press)

Lexington, Ky., May 25—An additional million pounds of redried tobacco of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has been sold by President James C. Stone and several other large sales are imminent, it was said today at the office of the association here. No information was given out as to the purchaser.

War Finance Corporation Head Praises Pool Marketing

Lexington, Ky., May 25—Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the War Finance Corporation, told what had been done toward financing co-operative marketing in the United States in an address Wednesday afternoon in the ball room of the Phoenix Hotel. Mr. Meyer had a conference with the directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, on whose invitation, extended by Judge Robert W. Bingham, he came to Lexington, and after lunch, at which he was the guest of the association, he spoke at 2:30 o'clock. He was introduced by Judge Bingham. President James C. Stone, of the Burley association, presided at the meeting.

"We have loaned millions of dollars to co-operative marketing associations," Mr. Meyer said "and our relations with them have been satisfactory in every way. The business requirements of the War Finance Corporation have been met by them like the best and oldest established corporations of the country."

"I believe that co-operative marketing has been the salvation of the Southern cotton situation, and I hope it will do as well for the tobacco growers as it has for the cotton producers."

"There is no better collateral for loans than good American staples, when properly warehoused and properly inspected and reasonably valued. Not only are they good collateral for 90 days, in my opinion, but as long as may be necessary for purposes of orderly and gradual marketing."

Mr. Meyer left Lexington Wednesday night, for Chattanooga, Tenn., whence he goes to Atlanta for a conference with the Georgia cotton co-operative and to speak at the convention of the Georgia Bankers' Association. He also will confer with representatives of the Texas and Oklahoma cotton growers and with the Mississippi Staple Cotton Growers' Association on his southern trip, to go over the place for cotton financing in these three states.

OVER 3,000 NEW MEMBERS ADDED

To Burley Pool On Day Of Second Payment—Cantrill and Stone Speak

Three thousand members it was estimated at the offices of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Assn. at Lexington had been enrolled in the association as a result of meetings held in the 69 counties of Kentucky, Ohio, and Indiana, which are represented in the organization, in connection with the payment to members in those counties of an amount of money approximating $10,000,000, the second payment to be made to members of the organization, the first having been of an equal amount.

Reports from many counties showed large numbers of growers, who remained out of the association last fall, had joined the first day of the drive for new members which began with the delivery of checks to members. Thousands of non-members attended these meetings by invitation of the association workers, and it is figured that between 9,000,000 and 12,000,000 pounds more tobacco was added to the amount that will be marketed co-operatively by the association this winter.

In most of the counties there were speakers for the association all of whom impressed upon members of the association that the outsider had an undoubted right to stay out and that abuse would not bring the outsider in.

The drive started Saturday will continue this week and workers for the association in all the will make an endeavor to line up every outside grower with the more than 60,000 who are now members.

Richmond is mighty glad to have her business friends of Lexington drop in this afternoon.

The latch-string is always on the outside, and while our welcome may not have the "punch" to it that the tourists found in Anderson county, still old Madison will do her best to make them know they are always welcome, and that she values and appreciates the cordial ties of fellowship, both social and commercial, that bind the two communities so intimately.

The Berea-McKee Road

It is a joy for The Citizen to publish an account of the victory of the Berea-McKee road promoters. W. R. Reynolds, County Agent for Jackson county, and many of the enterprising citizens of McKee and vicinity have worked faithfully on the project of opening up McKee to the outside world.

Jackson county's part of the money was pledged before the vote of the State and Madison county had been pledged. And now Judge Goodloe and the citizens of Berea and other parts of the county have gone on record for the road. Then the earnest cooperation of the citizens of Jackson and Madison counties, we may look forward to enjoying an automobile journey to McKee. Sometimes those of us who have lived on automobile roads most of our lives have become hardened to the advantages they offer. We sometimes take it for granted that a good road belongs to us and all we have to do is ride upon it. But good roads throughout the United States have come thru hard work, thru faithfully pursuing the fight, and when once the road has been secured, money could not buy it from the citizens.

Good roads make for the comfort, prosperity and happiness of the citizenry. But the road to McKee is not yet an actuality. It is only on paper and unless the patriotism of every citizen is displayed in this matter the road may be lost yet.

There are always a few cold-blooded, small-minded people who look with a sour countenance upon every progressive movement, who will say they are not interested in such a project. But they are greatly in the minority, and are so cheap that they usually say little or nothing about it openly.

Berea has a forward looking population and we confidently believe that the new road will mean more to our vicinity than any single project that has come this way in recent years.—Berea Citizen.

One House in Three Towns

Occupants of a house in Connecticut have the distinction of living in three towns and two counties, the New York Herald relates. When they walk from one room to another they travel from town to town and county to county. The post office address is given as Bolton, Conn. The dining room is located in Manchester. Some of the bedrooms are in Vernon and others are in Bolton. The family washing is done in Manchester, dried in Bolton and carried to Vernon. During eleven months of the year the family enjoys the interest taken in the property by visitors, photographers and sightseers. The twelfth month is occupied trying to figure how much the family owes each town in taxes.

PRIZES FOR YOUNG RADIO BUILDERS

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, May 25—The school boy who ignores his chum's two lifted fingers when they summon him to the swimming hole, or is leaf to the urgent appeal to "play ball," and hastens to his workshop to bend over vacuum tubes, will be given an opportunity to come into his own, according to plans of a committee in charge of radio contests in connection with the National Radio Exposition to be held here June 26-July 1. Five contests in making radio devices, the purpose of which is said to be "to unearthen young Edisons of wireless," have been announced by the committee; three of them will be for young people, two will be open to anyone. Contests are open to residents of any city, but each contestant must come in person to Chicago to prove that he made the device he offers.

For the grade school students an opportunity will be given to make a crystal detector set of 70 to 600 meters. It will be judged upon its workmanship, design and practicability. The prizes will be first, $25; second, $15; third, $10. A more difficult proposition will be offered to the students in the high schools and manual training schools. They will be asked to make a regenerative detector, two stage amplifier sets, 175 to 600 meters wave length; for this three prizes will be given: first, $50; second, $30; third, $20.

To give young men outside of the schools an opportunity prizes will be offered to all under 21 years of age. This contest will be for the making of the smallest set for receiving code and of practical use—the set occupying the smallest space. For this the prizes will be first, $50; second, $30; third, $20. One grand prize of $100 will be offered for the best loud speaker of the maker's own design throughout. This contest is open to any one. Another $100 prize will be given for the greatest radio novelty—this also open to any one. All the devices entered in the various contests must be at the headquarters of the National Radio Exposition, 417 S. Dearborn st., room 401, by 8 o'clock Friday evening, June 23.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS—He Never Knew It Was There

20,994 MILES AND TREAD ONLY 1/3 WORN

MOST MILES per DOLLAR

Firestone CORD TIRES

The section at the right was cut from a new Cord of the same size. Careful measurements show that only 1/3 of the tread of the tire on the Yellow Cab has been worn away after this long, grueling test. The carcass is intact after more than 11,000,000 revolutions.

Firestone Cords have averaged over 10,000 miles on Chicago Yellow Cabs (1,200 cabs all Firestone equipped). In thousands of instances, they have given from 15,000 to 50,000 miles.

Look at the tread—scientifically angled against skid, massive and heavy in the center where the wear comes, tapered at the edges to make steering easy and to protect the carcass against destructive hinging action of high tread edges. The carcass is air bag expanded to insure uniform tension and paralleling of every individual cord. It is double "gum dipped" to make sure that each cord is thoroughly insulated with rubber.

This is the reason why Firestone Cords unfailingly deliver extraordinary mileage. It explains the unanimous demand of thoughtful tire buyers for these values. The local Firestone dealer will continue to provide the personal service that makes Firestone tire comfort and economy complete.

MISS BENNETT'S BIG SOCIETY TO MEET SOON

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Ky., May 25—A full program has been prepared for the tenth annual gathering of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Louisville Conference, Methodist church, South. The sessions will be held at the Fourth Avenue Methodist church.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Louisville Conference is composed of more than 400 auxiliary organizations scattered over the western section of Kentucky. The society is engaged to a very great extent in doing promotional work, not only along strictly missionary lines but also in the field of social service and inter-racial work, with highly specialized departments for each branch of work.

Five young women, volunteers for life service, are being educated and trained by the organization at the present time.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Cecilian Club

The Cecilian Club held the final meeting of the year with Mrs. T. D. Chenault, Jr., as host and leader. This was but a repetition of many such occasions at this home. It is one of the unique programs of the year as it is well known that the leader will accept no substitutions. At this time it was a Grieg recital from the first number to the closing duet. The following numbers were included: Song of the Water Lily, Grieg; Mrs. Paul Burnam; Piano, The Wedding Day, Grieg; Mrs. McLaughlin; Four Hands, Death of Asa (Peer Gynt), Grieg; Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. McCown; Trio, In a Rose Garden, Grieg; Mrs. Blanton, Mrs. Burnam.

Miss Marion Noland, Pianist, Trill Dance, Arabian Dance, Solveig's Dance, Song, (Peer Gynt), Grieg; Miss Baldwin, Mrs. Green; Talk, Norway and Norwegian Music, Mrs. Fiedel; Anita's Dance (Peer Gynt), Grieg; Miss Isabelle Bennett and Miss Josephine Telford.

The program was opened by Miss Nettie Kate Evans of the Mary Patten Club who played "The Carnival" in characteristic and masterful style. It was a typical Norwegian composition and the interpretation revealed the peculiarities of the country and the composer. Another visit of the afternoon was Miss Grace Miller, of the State Normal, who gave a reading of "Ase's Death" which had just been given as a duet number by Mrs. Kellogg and Mrs. McCown. This gave an added significance to the entire program, showing traits of character in Peer Gynt which the music itself is incapable of doing. Miss Miller's recital was most realistic and brought the death scene vividly before the audience which is always a feature of artistic excellence.

Before the opening of the musical program Mrs. Mary Chenault gave a most comprehensive report of the Federation meeting held at Lexington last week. Mrs. Chenault expressed her entire satisfaction and appreciation of the order and concern shown in the advancement of music in Kentucky. She voiced the sentiment of the whole convention in her endorsement of the policies and plans of our able president, Mrs. Fogle, of Georgetown. That Mrs. Fogle has a personality that attracts and holds at the very outset was recognized by every one present. The club will resume its meetings the second week in October as in previous years. The out of town guests were Mrs. H. H. Speed, of Guilford, Miss. Mrs. Alfred Caruthers, of Pineville, and Mrs. Thomas Henry Clay, of Winchester.

May Murray in Her Latest, "Peacock Alley"

With Mae Murray in the stellar role of "Peacock Alley" at local theatres Thursday, motion picture fans will have an opportunity to see this beautiful star of stage and screen in one of the most elaborate of productions.

"Peacock Alley" presented by Robert Z. Leonard, is by Edmond Goulding based on a story by Oida Brigere and is released by Metro Pictures Corporation. The story of a Parisian dancer who fell in love with a small, town American youth and finds her husband's people scandalized when she goes back to his home, resulting in the couple seeking their fortunes in New York, is one which gives Miss Murray unusual opportunity to appear in many gorgeous and artistic costumes among elaborate settings.

Among the notable cast which aids Miss Murray in interpreting this romance of two countries is Monte Blue in the leading male role; Edmund Lowe, W. J. Ferguson, Anders Randolph, William Bacher, Howard Land, William Frederick, M. Durant and Jeffry Lewis.

NEW MEMBERS ADDED

Saturday may be increased by fuller reports, it was said at the offices of the association, but based on the reports received, it was said these figures form a conservative estimate of the additions to the association.

Cantrill At Lancaster

Lancaster, Ky., May 23—In the presence of an audience which filled the big court room of the Garrard county court house and overflowed into the halls and stairways, Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill pleaded with the tobacco growers to come into the association, not only for the benefit of the members, but for their own sakes, and "make it unanimous."

Many women were in the audience and the Congressman was given an enthusiastic reception. He was introduced by Judge Lewis L. Walker, chairman for Garrard county, and spoke for more than an hour.

The checks for the growers were distributed early and not an expression of dissatisfaction was heard here throughout the day. Mr. Cantrill said he had found satisfaction general, according to all reports he had heard since his arrival from Washington, and that he hoped the growers would sign up unanimously in the drive to be conducted in the county this week.

Quite a number of contracts were signed following Mr. Cantrill's address and a few before he began speaking. A number of growers last fall were prevented from joining the association because of previous agreements or contracts. These have come into the association, it was said, and the outlook in Garrard county for the signing up of the outside growers almost unanimously was declared to be favorable.

$900,000 Paid In Fayette

Lexington, Ky., May 23—Jas. C. Stone, president of the association, and Charles M. Marshall, chairman of the business men's committee which aided the pooling movement in Fayette county, were the chief speakers at Lexington, where about $900,000 was paid out to the 1,500 growers, and both expressed satisfaction with the success of the organization and confidence in its future working.

During the entire day a steady stream of men and women kept the 12 clerks busy handing out checks and receiving pledges of the 1922 acreage. The names of people to receive checks were arranged alphabetically and divided between six stands with two clerks in charge of each stand. Every man who received a check signed a statement of the number of acres he would cultivate this year and pledged his total crop to the pool.

Practically all of the Fayette growers called in person for their checks during the day, but a few

The first dog law was passed Jan. 31, 1865, the money going to the common schools and on Jan. 5, 1869, a law was passed allowing the people of the counties to vote a 15-cent school tax. The common school system for colored children was created in 1873. The most thrilling sessions of the legislature were in 1896 and 1900, according to Mrs. Cromwell. In 1896 the House of Representatives passed a bill to remain uncalled for. These will be held for several days in case the owners call for them, and then they will be mailed out. Everyone who received a check was requested to sign "The Burley Tobacco Grower," the official publication of the association.

President Stone explained that the cost of publication of this organ, which will be issued monthly has already been taken out of the membership fees.

In his speech, Mr. Marshall paid high tribute to the pioneers of the old pool of several years ago, who, he said, "wrote the emancipation proclamation for the tobacco growers of the burley district and laid the foundation for the movement of last year, which the splendid organization headed by Judge Robert W. Bingham, Aaron Sapiro, President James C. Stone and other enthusiastic and loyal workers had pushed to a successful realization." He commended Buford E. Allen, chairman of the Fayette county organization, for his untiring efforts in behalf of the association and said that it was his "sticking to the job" which took Fayette county "over the top" in the pooling campaign.

"This is the happiest day of my life," President Stone declared in opening his address. He said he was glad to see so many growers present to share in the prosperity that the co-operative movement brought to Fayette county.

He recounted in detail the hard work that it took to make the pool a success, the organization of the association, its incorporation, and taking over the various warehouses throughout the burley district, and the success that has been accomplished in marketing the 1921 crop of tobacco and securing adequate financial returns for the thousands of members of the association.

President Stone said that in former years marketing cost from 80 cents to $1.25 a hundred pounds, while under the association plan, after all operating expenses are paid the cost is only 50 cents a hundred pounds for marketing, thus resulting in a big saving to growers. The speaker also said that of the many millions of pounds of tobacco sold by the association since it began business that not a single basket of the weed bought by the manufacturers had been turned back or complained about as being under grade.

Value of Pool Proven
He declared that the vice president of one of the big manufacturing companies, who came here to buy some of the association tobacco, told him personally that if the growers had not organized they would not have realized for their tobacco this year within ten cents a pound what it actually brought, thus emphasizing the value of co-operation.

President Stone urged the growers to be loyal to the association and predicted its continued success would bring wonderful industrial prosperity to the burley district in the next five years.

"Let honesty and fairness to both grower and buyers be the cornerstones of our big organization on the part of both the producer and the manufacturer and it will grow stronger with the years," the speaker said.

He admonished his hearers not to "fall out" with their neighbors because they had not joined the association, but to exercise patience and forbearance with them and to try and convince them that the association is a good thing and is working for the growers' interest.

President Stone said that the association welcomed any investigation of its books or methods by the members of the association, as nothing was under cover to the thousands of growers who, he said, are full partners in the big organization.

Y. M. C. A. HAS TWO STRAWBERRY CAMPS

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., May 25—The State Young Men's Christian Association is directing and supervising the recreation of the two largest strawberry pickers camps in Kentucky, one at Bowling Green where from seven to ten thousand pickers are employed and the other at Pembroke where there are something like 3,000.

R. W. Reel, one of the district secretaries of the state staff, in charge of the camp at Bowling Green and George T. Anderson, industrial secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., is at Pembroke. Both men have with them their wives for the population of the strawberry pickers' camps made up of men, women and children.

A huge tent is used for recreation at Bowling Green. Entertainment of many varieties including motion pictures, musicals, lectures and dramatics are given in the tent auditorium. Athletic games and contests are staged on the open campus.

A large tobacco warehouse at Pembroke provides a fine auditorium and social center for the recreational activities carried on by Mr. Anderson. Both secretaries report fine cooperation on the part of the towns where the strawberry camps are maintained. The churches and civic organizations are manifestly ready to co-operate with an agency which establishes the morale of the camps.

C. L. Harris, secretary of the colored work of the State Y. M. C. A. staff, is directing the work of the colored pickers at Bowling Green. The same character of recreation is provided for the colored pickers as the whites.

The strawberry pickers' camp are usually maintained for about three weeks.

SUCCEEDS WHERE DOCTORS FAIL

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Often Does That.—Read Mrs. Miner's Testimony

Chubbuck, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I was able to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I didn't take it. I thank you for this medicine and I am sure to this point again I do not want to be without the Vegetable Compound. I give you permission to publish this letter so that all women can take advantage of it."—Mrs. FRED MINER, Box 2, Chubbuck, N. Y.

It's the same story over again. Women suffer from ailments for years, they try doctors and different medicines but feel no better. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you can see its value in the case of Mrs. Miner. That's the truth of the matter. If you're suffering from any of the troubles women have, you ought to try this medicine. It can be taken in safety by young or old, as it contains no harmful drugs.

LAUREL JURYMAN'S BARN IS BURNED

London, Ky., May 25—Word was brought here by Anderson Baker, a prosperous farmer of the southern part of the county, that his barn and a tenant house both near his residence were destroyed by fire of incendiary origin. Mr. Baker served on the February petit jury in this county and was instrumental in clearing out a nest of moon-shiners near his home, most of whom received heavy fines and jail sentences. Some of their relatives and sympathizers threatened Mr. Baker at the time he led the crusade against them. Baker formerly lived in Clay county and was closely related to the leaders of the Howard faction in the Baker-Howard feud twenty years ago, but moved to this county to keep himself and family out of the feud and has been a leader in his section for law, order and progress.

Hail Destroys Millions of Dollars of Tobacco

May Get Yours Any Day

The loss of tobacco by hail in this and other tobacco states within the last five years has run up into millions of dollars with only a small part covered by insurance. Yet, the amount of insurance received by growers who had the foresight thus to protect themselves against such loss, was enormous and should make every grower not only feel the necessity of insuring his tobacco crop against hail storms but to do that very thing and do it at once.

What Dr. Halley Says: Dr. Samuel H. Halley, of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association, upon contemplating an insurance company on lowering its rates on tobacco hail insurance, said, "Within the period that I have had hail insurance I have had four severe losses. The money I received exceeded considerably what I paid in, to say nothing of my peace of mind that I was fully protected in case of a storm. I have always advocated carrying hail insurance on tobacco without which every grower takes a chance to lose all. With it he can, in safety, go into the business of producing a crop which requires, as does tobacco, so much labor, time and money."

Now that the Barley Growers have gone into an organization to handle their business in a modern economic business-like way, I see no reason why all growers can not take out insurance on the reduced rates the companies are now quoting. Look up the insurance agent in your section now, and let him protect you against the loss of your tobacco. Policies effective July 10th, noon.
